

Flexible Tenancies: Law, Policy & Implementation

Thursday 23rd February 2012 6.15 – 8.30pm
Registration, Networking & Refreshments 6.15 – 7.00pm

Presentation and Panel Discussion

New law, standards and policy give social landlords the flexibility to grant periodic or fixed term tenancies; to charge social, affordable or intermediate rents; to preface different types of tenancy with starter or trial periods. How will we utilise the new options to best meet local housing need and are we ready for the new legal complexities?

Jon Holbrook, barrister at Cornerstone Barristers will discuss the flexible tenancy provisions of the Localism Act 2011

Zoe Willenbrock, Head of Policy at Circle Housing Group and Candida Thompson, Head of RMG's Housing Options Service for Westminster Council will join him as our panellists.

The Venue

Trowers & Hamblins, Sceptre Court, 40 Tower Hill, London EC3N 4DX

Tube: Tower Hill DLR: Fenchurch St Main Line: London Bridge/Cannon St
Map: Go to www.trowers.com/offices/london/location

Admission and CPD

£25 (members); £10 (trainees & pupils who are members); £75 (non-members)

Law Society, Bar Standards Board: 1½ CPD hours
(CPD hours subject to approval by professional standards bodies)

To submit questions in advance, or for further information, email us at info@shla.org.uk or visit www.shla.org.uk

SHLA: a forum for social housing professionals & their lawyers
Unit 2i, Berol House, 25 Ashley Road, London, N17 9LJ